רפואה שלמה פעסל בת גאלדא / לזכות חילינו

On Pesach, we celebrate the power of faith and perseverance.

Just as the Israelites trusted in Hashem's promise of redemption, let us trust that our own redemption is within reach.

NOAM ELIMELECH, REB ELIMELECH OF LIZHENS (1717-1787)

When Hashem hears His children retelling the story of the Exodus, He proudly gathers all the heavenly bodies and tells them, "Go and listen to My children praising Me and delighting in the story of how I redeemed them!"

THE ZOHAR

There will come a time, very soon, when we will be shown miracles so great, they will make the Ten Plagues and the Splitting of the Sea appear as ordinary as nature itself.

So great, no mind can begin to fathom them; so powerful, they will transform the very fabric of our world, elevating it in a way that the wonders of the Exodus could not achieve.

For then, our eyes will be opened and granted the power to see the greatest of miracles.

And what are those miracles?

Those that occur to us now, beneath our very noses, every day.

LUBAVITCHER REBBE, REB MENACHEM MENDEL SCHNEERSON (1902-1994)

When I ponder the miracle of the survival and perseverance of the Jewish people, it is in my opinion greater than all the miracles and wonders that Hashem performed for our ancestors in Egypt, in the wilderness, and in the land of Israel. The longer the exile persists, the more apparent the miracle becomes.

THE YA'AVETZ, RABBI YAAKOV EMDEN (1697-1776)
