רפואה שלמה פעסל בת גאלדא / לזכות חילינו

There is no such thing as a Jew "with no Jewish background." Every Jew's "background" is that he or she is a child of Avraham, Yitzchak and Yaakov, and a child of Sarah, Rivkah, Rachel, and Leah.

LUBAVITCHER REBBE, REB MENACHEM MENDEL SCHNEERSON (1902-1994)

The greatest way to serve Hashem is to love and care for one another as Hashem loves and cares for us.

RABBI YITZCHAK SCHOCHET

"Rabbi Akiva said: Love your fellow as yourself - This is a great principle of the Torah." (Yerushalmi, Nedarim 9:4)

When Yidden get up after learning Torah, they should be more compassionate and kinder, with more room in their heart for others. If that doesn't happen, then they didn't learn it properly, and should sit back down and learn it again.

RABBI DOVID FEINSTEIN (1929-2020)

Humility does not mean thinking less of yourself. Humility is the internalized awareness with every fiber of your being, that everything you possess, is a gift from the Almighty Who bestows His kindness upon you. The more a person focuses on how special he is – while knowing that it is all a gift from Hashem – the greater his humility.

RABBI YEHUDA LEIB CHASMAN (1869-1935)

Shabbos is an oasis of tranquility amid an ocean of confusion.

RABBI MOSHE POLTER (1938-2005)
