רפואה שלמה פעסל בת גאלדא / לזכות חילינו

Greatness is not about being above people but about being with them, hearing their silent cry, sharing their distress, bringing comfort to the distressed and dignity to the deprived. The message of the Torah is that civilizations survive not by strength but by how they respond to the weak; not by wealth but by how they care for the poor; not by power but by their concern for the powerless. What renders a culture invulnerable is the compassion it shows to the vulnerable.

RABBI JONATHAN SACKS (1948-2020)

Once a person realizes that being perfect is unattainable, they can finally understand that greatness is found in the holy journey of constantly becoming just a little bit better.

RAV AVRAHAM YITZCHAK KOOK (1865-1935)

Trusting in Hashem can bring peace to your past, purpose to your present, and hope to your future.

RABBI DANIEL AGALAR

Knowing where an act of kindness will lead is impossible. One cannot possibly trace its progress through the world as it spreads goodness through the many lives intertwined in the fabric of humanity. No one can see what Hashem sees as the effects of one kind act mounts higher and higher. No one, therefore, can imagine the immeasurable reward he earns for his act of kindness. A person can only know that the good he has done is no doubt far greater than the good he thinks he has done.

CHOFETZ CHAIM, RAV YISRAEL MEIR KAGAN (1838-1933)

If G-d had a refrigerator, your picture would be on it. If He had a wallet, your photo would be in it.

He sends you flowers every spring. He sends you a sunrise every morning. Face it, friend - He is crazy about you!

G-d didn't promise days without pain, laughter without sorrow, sun without rain, but He did promise strength for the day, comfort for the tears, and light for the way.
