רפואה שלמה פעסל בת גאלדא / לזכות חילינו

Always remember that Hashem gives His most difficult roles to His best actors.

RABBI DANIEL AGALAR

To be a Jew is to be asked to give, to contribute, to make a difference, to help in the monumental task that has engaged Jews since the dawn of our history; to make the world a home for the Divine presence - a place of justice, compassion, human dignity, and the sanctity of life.

RABBI JONATHAN SACKS (1948-2020)

Your most heroic acts are those of which you may not even be aware.

Like the time you could have gotten even with the guy in the next cubicle, and nobody would have known. And you really wanted to. But you didn't, just because it's not right.

You may not have been impressed - you may have even been disappointed with yourself. But the angels burst into song, as all your world rose up a notch. It may have been the most elevating act of a lifetime.

It's when you break out of your nature that you enter the realm of the divine.

RABBI TZVI FREEMAN

It states in the Zohar, "The Holy One, blessed be He, the Torah, and Yisrael are one."

The same way one cannot pick Hashem or His Torah apart by saying, "This particular verse doesn't appeal to me," so too, should we approach our fellow Jew, treating him with respect and acknowledging his importance to the Jewish People as a whole.

REB YITZCHAK OF VORKA (1779-1848)

If once in your lifetime you gave one thirsty man a glass of water, that is enough reason to dance for seventy years.

BAAL SHEM TOV, REB YISRAEL BEN ELIEZER (1698-1760)
