

My manager returned from vacation today. May I ask him how it was?

Inquiring About Personal Matters

8. Due to the aforementioned prohibition of she'eilas shalom, one may not ask a member of the opposite gender about their well-being, or inquire about personal matters, such as:

- “Are you happy in your new home?”
  - “How did you enjoy your vacation?”
  - “How was Shabbos?”
  - “How many mesibos did you have on Chanukah?”
