

Sitting Between Two Women

13. If a man is seated between two women on a plane, and is unable to switch seats, he should sit toward the front of the seat, so that his body should not be between them. He should also place objects on both sides to serve as dividers.

(Ahaleich Ba'amitecha 20:88)
