

Involuntary Thoughts

7. If one works to protect himself, yet still finds himself thinking an unwanted inappropriate thought, it is not considered to be a sin. Still, in such an instance, he is obligated to immediately stop thinking that thought.

(In the subsequent email, we will explain how to handle involuntary thoughts.)