

Just a Story...

A Good Teacher

by Rabbi Mendel Weinbach zt"l

"The mediocre teacher tells, the good teacher explains, and the superior teacher demonstrates." This grading of teachers made by William Arthur Ward came to mind upon hearing what Rabbi Dovid Weinberger did for his class of senior citizens at Jerusalem's Ohr Somayach while studying the Torah law forbidding the consumption of animal fat known as cheilev. In all of his many years as an educator, Reb Dovid never had such a group of students who insisted on being shown exactly which is the forbidden fat and which the permitted one. What did Reb Dovid do? In the presence of the students, he got on the phone to the renowned Jerusalem butcher, Reb Alter Hacker, and began asking him how to answer his students questions. "Send one of them over to me right away," came the answer. In less than a quarter of an hour one of the older men came into the classroom clutching genuine cheilev in one hand, and the permitted shuman in the other.

Thus Rabbi Weinberger, who serves as the Ohr Somayach Student Registrar in addition to his teaching role, proved himself a superior teacher by demonstrating what he taught, and a truly great teacher by inspiring his students and his colleagues with a love for learning and teaching.

Hints & Answers* HALACHA CHALLENGE: Shemiras Shabbos Kehilchosa (20:22) writes: "Any object that a person set a special place for it (due to its great value), and he is careful not to move it due to the concern that it should not get damaged, such as a wall clock, a diploma that he is careful about, are also included in the category of "muktza machmas chesron kis" and there isn't any permission to move it." RHYME: "pursue it" RIDDLE: 1. 28:12, 32:2 2. Lavan did not want to mix the joy of Leah's wedding with the joy of Rachel's wedding. Thus, after the 1st wedding, he told to Yaakov that he needs to wait one week. [Now, if Lavan did not want to reduce someone's joy, how much more so we should be careful about that!] 3. Yaakov and Moshe. Yaakov said: ... וַיִּירָא מֹשֶׁה מִפְּנֵי הָאֱלֹהִים וַיֹּאמֶר מִדֵּינִי וְהִנֵּנִי מִפְּנֵי הָאֱלֹהִים מֹשֶׁה מֹשֶׁה וְהִנֵּנִי מִפְּנֵי הָאֱלֹהִים | *Note: Menucha answers merely serve as a platform for discussion and further study, and not as decisive teachings of halacha.

Moving a Diploma on Shabbos

The Cohen family had Mr. Silver as a guest for their Friday night seuda.

During the seuda, Mr. Silver noticed Dr. Cohen's diploma hanging on a wall.

"Whose diploma is it?" asked Mr. Silver.

"Boruch Hashem, it's my diploma for my doctor's degree," answered Dr. Cohen.

"Wow! That's amazing. I didn't know that you are a doctor!" said Mr. Silver as he walked over to the wall where the diploma was hanging. "My vision is not so great," said Mr. Silver, "Do you mind if I take down your diploma and take a closer look at it?"

"Ahh...hmm...I guess I don't mind," replied Dr. Cohen.

At that moment, the youngest son of the Cohen's said to the honored guest, "Mr. Silver - but isn't my totty's diploma muktza?!"

Mr. Silver looked at Chaim with puzzled look.

Question: Can Mr. Silver take down the diploma?

וְעֵינֵי לֵאָה רַכּוֹת And the eyes of Leah were soft...

(Bereishis 29:17)

Quoting the words of Chaza"l, Rashi explains that Leah's eyes were soft due to crying, because people would say that Yaakov, the younger son of Rivka will marry Rachel, the younger daughter of Lavan; while Eisav, the older son of Rivka, will marry Leah, the older daughter of Lavan. Targum Yonasan ben Uziel tells us that Leah's eyes were soft from crying and praying to Hashem that she should not end up marrying Eisav. Thus, Leah's tears were tears in tefilla. This is the lesson that our mother Leah has taught us - pray with tears.

Interestingly, Targum Onkolos does not translate the word רַכּוֹת as "soft". He translates it as "beautiful". Thus, according to Onkolos, the verse reads, "And the eyes of Leah were beautiful..." Perhaps, there is no disagreement between Targum Onkolos and Targum Yonasan ben Uziel. The Torah is simply teaching us that to our Father in Heaven, beautiful eyes are those that are filled with tears during tefilla.

Keep this important lesson from our mother Leah in mind before every tefilla. Especially since we have the mesorah from our sages: שְׁעַרֵּי דַמְעָה לֹא נִנְעָלוּ "The gates of tears are always open!" [Berachos 32b]

הלל אומר: הוי מתלמידיו של אהרן, אוהב שלום ורודף שלום ...
[פרקי אבות א:ב]

Learn this well and review it:
"Love shalom and _____!"

"The stones started quarreling with one another. One said, "Let the righteous man (Yaakov) lay his head on me!" And another one said, "Let him lay his head on me." Immediately, the Holy One, blessed be He, made them into one stone. This is why it is stated (verse 18): "and he took the stone that he had placed at his head." (Peirush Rashi to Bereishis 28:11)

Parsha Riddle

1. The expression מִלֵּאכֵי אֱלֹקִים appears only two times in the entire Tanach! But what's even more interesting is that both of these times are in this week's parsha! Can you find them?
2. Even Lavan had sensitivity toward others! We see it from the fact that he did not want to mix... Mix what?
3. Indeed! The word אֶכֶן appears only twice in the entire 5 Books of Torah. It was said by two different people. And indeed, both of them had awe of Heaven around the time that they said that word! Name the two people who said that word.
