

A Harmful Coworker

5. If someone has a coworker that is attempting to influence him or her negatively (from a spiritual standpoint), and certainly if someone has a coworker who dresses inappropriately or speaks uncleanly, he or she should speak to a Rav to determine if it is permissible to remain in such an environment. One should always remember that one's livelihood comes from Hashem, and he should be prepared to leave his job if it is determined necessary. (Malbushei Mordechai, p. 418)