

Special Care

9. Those who do business or regularly come into contact with people from different cultures for any reason must be especially vigilant to avoid nivul peh. People who are not sensitized to frum culture often speak in an unrefined way, so it is preferable to limit conversations with them as much as possible and to try not to be negatively influenced by their way of speaking. (Yisrael Kedoshim ch. 2)
