

Corporate Events

5. When a company, office, etc., arranges a party or other gathering between employees, there must be a proper mechitzah separating the men from the women.
6. Ideally, the men and women should each have a separate event/party, held at separate times.