An Inappropriate Party

7. If one knows that a particular event will not be held in accordance with proper tznius standards, they should not attend, even if it is held for the purpose of a mitzvah. (Sefer Chassidim 393; see Taharas Yom Tov from p. 126)

8. One who works for a company managed by gentiles or secular Jews – who will be upset if he/she does not attend their party (and there is no plausible excuse to rationalize missing the event) – must consult a posek.

Note: It is important to bear in mind – when hosting a larger conference or party for one's employees, partners, business associates, etc. with catering and entertainment – that it is the host's responsibility to ensure that the event is organized in an appropriate manner, in accordance with the halachos of tznius. Otherwise, the host can, ch"v, fall under the category of “machti es harabbim,” causing the public to sin.
