

Dining Room/Coffee Room

9. A dining room in an office, where employees eat meals, must be set up in a way that will keep men and women completely separate. Ideally, there should be a physical mechitzah. If that is not possible, the men and women should use the dining room at different times. (Malbushei Mordechai – Tznius, p. 416)

10. Similarly, men and women should not loiter in an office's coffee room/cafeteria simultaneously. (ibid.)

11. Ideally, an office should have separate locations for male and female employees to hang up their coats, etc., in order to avoid mingling when they arrive at and leave from work.
